Abstract Submission Guidelines

Authors wishing to submit an abstract for oral or poster presentation are requested to submit a maximum of 50 words for the abstract title and 150 words for the abstract text in English.

Migration and invasion
Trafficking/membrane
Cell-cell communication
Organelle biogenesis and disease
Genome integrity and regulation
Growth regulation
Non-autonomous control of proliferation
Mechanics and Morphogenesis
Germline and early embryogenesis

All abstracts need to be submitted via the online abstract submission form.

When submitting your abstract, please note the following important instructions:

- Without exception, late submissions will not be accepted after Midnight (GMT), Thursday 7 February, 2019
- Authors will be advised of the decision for oral presentations by early March, 2019
- All presenters (poster and oral) will be required to register separately and pay the appropriate registration fee
- At the time of submitting your abstract you will be asked to select the type of presentation you would like to give
- For abstracts where oral presentation is selected, a small number will be chosen for short (15 minute) talks. All other submitted abstracts will be accepted as posters. Abstracts selected for an oral presentation can also be presented as a poster.

Poster Presentations

Posters will be on display throughout the conference. There will also be allocated Poster Sessions.

If you intend to submit an abstract for Poster Presentation please note the following:

- Poster boards are 1.8 metres high and 0.9 metres wide. It is recommended that displays do not exceed 1.5 metres in length.
- Posters can be put up from 14.00 on Sunday 15 April and should be removed by 13.00 on Wednesday 18 April. The organisers cannot be held responsible for any posters left after this time.

If you are a student or postdoc and wish to submit a poster, you will have the opportunity to be considered for a Student/Postdoc Poster Prize. If you would like to be considered then please indicate this on the abstract form. Please note that you can only be considered for one prize.
